Sir or Madam:

It has recently come to our attention that there may be an error in the patent term adjustment calculated by the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office for the above-referenced patent application. Specifically, the patent term adjustment pursuant to 35 U.S.C. 154(b) of 679 days indicated on the Determination of Patent Term Adjustment, PTOL-85, may extend the term of this patent by too many days. Please review the calculation of the patent term adjustment and make corrections, if necessary.

The Patent Term Adjustment may have been incorrectly calculated because of a filing of a Request for Continued Examination after payment of the issue fee on March 3, 2005. The U.S. Patent and Trademark Office listed 64 days of applicant delay. However, the delay from the filing of the Request for Continued Examination until the current Notice of Allowance may be 120 days under 37 C.F.R. § 1.704(c)(10), making the total applicant delay 175 days.

Respectfully submitted,
